

ALLIANCE FOR COMMUNITY MEDIA

666 11th Street, NW,
Suite 740
Washington, DC 20001-4542

AWARD NOMINATION FORMS:

The George Stoney Award for Humanistic Communication

The George Stoney Award is given annually to an organization or individual who has made an outstanding contribution to championing the growth and experience of humanistic community communications.

The Buske Leadership Award

The Buske Leadership Award recognizes individuals who have demonstrated commitment to the mission and goals of the Alliance for Community Media, leadership within the organization within the last three years, a high degree of involvement in the organization nationally, regionally and at the chapter level, and continuing service to the ACM.

The Jewell Ryan-White Award for Cultural Diversity

The Jewell Ryan-White Award for Cultural Diversity is given annually to those persons who show an outstanding contribution to a process that encourages, facilitates, or creates culturally diverse and/or non-mainstream community involvement in the field of community media.

Information:

All submitted award nomination forms are passed on to the national board's Membership Committee. Every committee member is given copies of the forms and any additional material submitted. Each member ranks the nominations in order of "first to last." After tabulation of all votes, the top-ranked nominee for each award is recommended to the full Board of Directors. The Board then can accept, amend, or reject the committee's recommendations.

Instructions:

Please complete the nomination form in its entirety. Return the completed form to:
